Elks' Memorial Services.

The Opera House was crowded last night with a representative gathering of ladies and gentlemen who had been invited to attend the exercises in connection with the memorial services of Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. This is an annual service at which the members of the organization and their many friends gather to pay respect to the memory of departed members of the order. The services are always interesting and impressive and are naturally appreciated. The programme last night had been prepared with care and each feature was rendered with marked precision and reflected credit upon all who participated. So well had the committee in charge of the arrangements done its work in getting up a suitable programme of exercises that scarcely a member of the lodge failed to avail himself of all the tickets at his disposal.

The officers and members of the organization and visiting members of the order from Washington occupied seats on the stage, which had been beautifully decorated with palms, trailing vines and white chrysanthemums. Directly over the heads of the speakers was a large electric sign bearing the one word, "Elks," in white and purple incandescent lamps, and at the rear of the stage was a large white memorial tablet, on which the names of the five deceased members of the lodge appeared in electric letters as they were called by the secretary.

The principal speakers were Past Exalted Ruler Jacob Brill, of Alexandria Lodge, and Mr. Samuel Gumpers, of Washington Lodge, No. 15. Both made impressive and interesting addresses and they were listened to with close attention. Mr. Gumpers, who has long been accustomed to speak before large bodies, was at his best. His discourse was apt and his references pointed. Mr. Brill was also equal to the occasion, and far exceeded the expectations of all present, notwithstanding he had made a record at the last annual exercises of the order. The instrumental music was furnished by Prof. Victor's orchestra.

The vocal part of the programme was furnished by the Birenmore Quartette of Washington. Members of the quartette, are Messrs. M. H. Stevens, W. Clabaugh, W. E. Birch, C. N. Moore. The following programme was rendered: Overture, "Coronation," Myerberg; invocation, Chaplain Bro. H. H. Kelly; funeral march, F. Chopin; first part opening ceremony, Bro. W. H. P. Kelly, exalted ruler and officers; quartette, "Absent Brother," quartette, "There is a blessed home," opening ode; trombone solo, "Asleep in the Deep," Mr. W. H. Miller, tenor solo, Mr. M. H. Stevens; address, Mr. Jacob Brill; "Ave Marie," "Thanatopsis," Bro. D. Robey; "Palms," Faure; quartette, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," cello solo, "Evening Star," Mr. Percy Button; address, Mr. Samuel Gumpers, of Washington lodge No. 15; hymn, "Lead Kindly Light," Orchestra; solo, "The Lord is my Light," Mr. W. Clabaugh; cornet solo, "Dream of Paradise," Mr. W. T. Davis; quartette, "Evening Hymn," Mr. M. H. Stevens, Mr. W. Clabaugh, Mr. W. E. Birch and Mr. C. N. Moore; orchestra, "Let me Dream Again," closing ceremonies, Exalted Ruler and officers; "Nearer My God to Thee," benediction, Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

From the moment the curtain rose, and the Elks, assembled on the stage, were joined by the audience in singing "Nearer My God to Thee," there was not an instant when the solemnity of the occasion was forgotten.

The departed members of Alexandria Lodge and the dates of their death are: W. L. Hayes, December 19, 1902; George F. Steiner, August 7, 1903; Samuel Wingfield, August 9, 1905; and Donald McLean, September 4, 1905.

The present officers of Alexandria Lodge are William H. P. Kelly, exalted ruler; Louis E. Shuman, esteemed leading knight; Harry Fleischmann, esteemed loyal knight; Frederick P. Russell, esteemed lecturing knight; George T. Caton, Secretary; Charles Geisendaffer, treasurer; Thomas T. Downey, tiler; Edward J. Shinn, esquire; Henry H. Kelly, chaplain; William W. West, inner guard; D. A. Robey, organist; Zoro Hill, William M. Smith and L. C. Bailey, trustees. The chairman of the memorial committee was Mr. Harry Fleischmann, to whom the members gave the praise for the success of the service.

Alleged Forgery.

A well dressed young man attempted to pass a check for $3,000 at the Citizens' National Bank Saturday afternoon in a manner not in accordance with business principles. The check was drawn on the Washington Loan and Trust Company. Mr. Carroll Pierce, the assistant cashier, informed him that he would have to get the indorsement of some responsible citizen. The young man departed with the statement that he would get Mr. G. William Ramsay to place his name on the paper. He returned in a few minutes and stated that Mr. Ramsay would not sign it, but was satisfied that the check was all right. The young man started away again, saying he would get Mr. Charles King to endorse it. He returned with Mr. King's name upon the check. The bank officers, who were determined to take all due precaution, telephoned to Mr. King. In the meantime the stranger slipped out of the bank. Mr. King informed the bank officers that he had not endorsed the check. The young man is known as Whitney Hall. It is said that he previously went to the First National Bank and presented the check. The officers refusing to cash it, he subsequently visited the Citizens' Bank. Some say he is subject to erratic freaks. The bank officers, as soon as Hall disappeared, notified Lieutenant Smith of the matter and he, after obtaining a description of the young man, directed the officers to keep a sharp lookout for him. About thirty years ago an Episcopal minister named Hall who was well-known in Alexandria lived in Fairfax county a short distance from this city. He was a native of England, and while here married a Miss Goings. The young man who figured in yesterday's transaction is said to be a son of the couple.

Arrest of Darley.

The Washington police on Saturday afternoon arrested William Darley, the young man who is alleged to have assaulted and attempted to rob Mrs. Ellen Nugent at her home on the northeast corner of Gibson and Pitt streets last Friday afternoon. Darley was living and Twining City, D. C., as a found in the house of Leonard Latham on Anconita avenue between Benning and the policemen called at the house. When aroused and placed under arrest he denied that he even knew Mrs. Nugent, but before reaching the police station he admitted his identity, and also said he had been in Mrs. Nugent's house. He told the policemen that he was there Friday afternoon, and that he went to the house for the purpose of arousing John Nolan, a friend, and that Mrs. Nugent caught him in there. He denied that he assaulted Mrs. Nugent, or that he attempted to rob her. Policemen Lyles went to Washington Saturday night and brought the prisoner to this city. Darley was brought before the Police Court this morning. He was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen, and Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, appeared for the prosecution. After hearing the evidence in the case Justice Caton sent the accused on to the grand jury.

In the Street in His Night Clothes.

About 4:30 o'clock this morning a man clothed only in his underwear and hatless appeared at the station house and said he had been a victim of kidnappers. He told a remarkable story, alleging that a well-known river man entered his house, killed his babies and carried him to a houseboat in one of the city docks. The man acted in a manner which showed that he was in an irresponsible condition, and it was subsequently ascertained that he lived in the western portion of the city, where he is well known. Officer Roberts fixed him up as comfortable as possible and conducted him home. Upon arriving there the officer ascertained that the man was suffering from pneumonia, and in his delirium had jumped from a second story window and made his way to the station house in the biting cold in the condition he had left his bed. Officer Roberts saw him safely in the house and did all he could for his comfort under the circumstances.

Branch Bank.

The Herndon branch of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation of Alexandria was opened on the first instant under favorable conditions. The president of the institution, Mr. C. J. Rixey, and Mr. John P. Robinson, its vice president, were assisted by Mr. S. L. Monroe, Mr. C. P. Waller and Mr. H. M. Lewis, the latter of Charlottesville, in receiving the large number of subscribers to the stock of the corporation and depositors who were on hand to welcome the new bank. At the close of the business of the opening day of the bank it was stated that the sum of $30,000 had been received in payment on stock and in deposits; and those having the enterprise in charge were greatly pleased with the outlook. Mr. B. A. Mankin will be the cashier, and three directors will be selected from among the local stockholders. Mr. W. E. Miller will be one of the directors, but the others have not yet been named.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Alice Galloway, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. William Darley, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with assaulting and attempting to rob Mrs. Ellen Nugent, was sent on to the grand jury.

Lorena Butler and Rose Williams, both colored, arrested at the instance of Chief Webster charged with perjury, had their cases continued.

Charles Lloyd, charged with incorrigibility, was sent to the workhouse for 90 days.

Struck with a Rock.

Mr. James Lanham, who is employed by Mr. James Roberts, had a narrow escape from serious injury shortly after 7 o'clock last Saturday night while in West End near the bridge over the railroad tracks. He was walking past a lane on the south side of the road when a white man emerged and threw a rock at his head. Fortunately the missile struck Mr. Roberts on the back of the neck, and his overcoat collar broke its force to a considerable extent. Mr. Lanham turned quickly and raised an alarm, when the assailant fled. It was evidently the intention of the latter to knock Mr. Lanham down and rob him.

Fall of a Chimney.

Last night about 11 o'clock while patrons, ladies and gentlemen, of Mrs. Ella Brown were enjoying oysters in her oyster parlors, on south Royal street, they were startled by an alarming crash and partially smothered in dust and smoke. It was soon ascertained that the old kitchen chimney had collapsed, crushing the roof and throwing the debris in all directions, fortunately injuring no one. The kitchen and gas stoves were put unexpectedly out of service and the appetites of the guests quickly satisfied.

The following officers of Alva Aerie, No. 871, Order of Eagles, have been elected for the ensuing year: Samuel Bendheim, worthy president, Thomas Chancery, worthy vice president, E. J. Kelly and John Hanratty, trustees.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Buckley's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25-cent E. S. Leabaster & Sons' drug store.

The Weather.

Yesterday was another disagreeable Sunday. The weather was for the most part rainy and cold. Late in the evening clearing conditions prevailed. The temperature continued to fall during the night and this morning at 7 o'clock the mercury was down to 30°. The weather has been clear and cold today with a stiff northwest wind.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

John Russell, colored, died at the Alexandria Hospital last night. The deceased was 29 years old.

An infant daughter of Mr. W. C. Field, formerly of this city, but now living in Washington, died a few days ago.

Chief Peley and several firemen were at the Opera House during the Elks' memorial services last night to guard against any possibility of a fire.

The residents of the neighborhood of Wilkes and Royal streets were startled last Saturday night by several pistol shots, the cause for which could not be ascertained.

The alarm of fire about half past 2 o'clock this afternoon was caused by the partial burning of the roof of a small frame house in the square bounded by Wolfe, Wilkes, Henry and Fayette streets. The damage was slight.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp will be held in Lee Camp Hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. As this is the final meeting before the oyster supper, it is obligatory on all members to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., will be held in the Confederate Veterans' building tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at half past ten o'clock. Members are earnestly requested to be present, this meeting being one of great importance to the chapter.

An interesting article, written by Mr. C. R. Yates, of this city, on "the effect on the average grocer's business which the enforcement of the food laws has had," appeared last week in the Grocery World. The writer, very sensibly, urges the enactment of a pure food law in order that the present spirit of distrustfulness may pass away.

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of William Lloyd Garrison will be observed on Monday night next by the colored people of this city at the Alfred street Baptist Church.

The exercises will be under the auspices of William Lloyd Garrison Association and the Dumas Literary and Debating Society. F. H. M. Murray is chairman of the committee, and Rev. H. H. Waring secretary.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

It is a good plan to take a dose of the Tablets when you have a cold. They promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Beach Sands.

A party of chauffeurs were walking along Cape May beach. One of them picked up a handful of sand and said: "Why is it that one beach is firm enough for motor cars, while another is so soft a child can hardly walk on it?" "The sand in your hand answers that question," the second chauffeur replied. "See how fine it is." The sand was, indeed, as fine as dust, as fine as talcum powder. "The finer a sand is the more closely it will pack and, by consequence, the firmer surface it will offer," went on the second chauffeur. "This fine sand here makes a roadbed many feet in depth—a roadbed you couldn't pack more closely if you rolled it a hundred years with a hundred ton roller. Study the sand at Long Branch or Asbury Park. It is prettier than this. It is made of separate grains that you can readily distinguish. Each is a perfect cube, white or black or red—a beautiful clear colored shape that it is a pleasure to look at. Each is about fifty times bigger than the Cape May grains; hence the sand of Asbury Park or Long Branch won't pack down, won't make a firm roadbed. There is only one place in the country where the sand is finer than at Cape May, and that place is Ormond."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Modesty of Hokusai.

Young artists, not gaining distinction early, have had various instances to quote as showing that mastery performance often came late in life. In Dora Amson's book on Japanese art it is set forth that this is what the celebrated Japanese artist Hokusai wrote about himself: "From the age of six I had a mania for drawing the forms of things. By the time I was fifty I had published an infinity of designs, but all I have produced before the age of seventy is not worth taking into account. At seventy-five I learned a little about the real structure of nature—of animals, plants and trees, birds, fishes and insects. In consequence, when I am eighty I shall have made still more progress. At ninety I shall penetrate the mystery of things. At a hundred I shall certainly have reached a marvelous stage, and when I am 110 everything I do—be it but a line or dot—will be alive. I beg those who live as long as I do to see if I do not keep my word." Hokusai died in 1849 at the age of eighty-nine.
